

EXPRESSIVE WRITING

"Showing thought or feeling in words or actions"

Examples of expressive writing

1. Diaries and journals
2. Autobiographies or memoirs
3. Personal songs and poems
4. Speeches (assembly, classroom)
5. Opinions or thought pieces (brainstorms)

Word List:

believe, leadership role, privilege, possess, inner thoughts, important, required, teachers, friends, peers, community, opportunity, build, classroom, integral, beneficial, importance, multitasking, role model, create, aspire, involve, leader, empower, collaboration, motivation

1. Name as many positive personality traits about yourself.

2. What influences you the most? (e.g. family, school, friends, environment)

3. How do they make you feel? (e.g. School provides an opportunity to learn and make friends)

4. List values / beliefs that are important to you? (caring, showing love, being kind)

Assignment: Write a school captain speech and within your speech list the positive characteristics about yourself.

- You will need a new piece of paper or full page to write this out
- Use the words from the word list at the top of this sheet
- Present this out loud to your family